

Terms of Reference of the Independent Fundraising Standards & Adjudication Panel for Scotland (the “Panel”)

A. Purpose of the Panel

1. Responsible for Fundraising Standards in Scotland
2. Handling of fundraising complaints relating to Scottish registered charities

B. Functions of the Panel

The two main functions of the Panel are:

- (i) to oversee fundraising standards in Scotland; and
- (ii) to oversee fundraising complaints.

The Panel shall act to:

1. promote good complaints handling processes by Scottish Charities;
2. ensure the promotion of good fundraising practice and fundraising standards;
3. receive and adjudicate on stage three complaints;
4. oversee the Scottish Charities Complaints Hub;
5. enhance the self-regulation model by:
 - 5.1 developing the Fundraising Commitment; and
 - 5.2 promoting and developing the codes of fundraising practice in conjunction with the Fundraising Regulator;
6. advise OSCR of its adjudications; and
7. in the carrying out of its functions the Panel shall, where appropriate, liaise and put in place a binding memorandum of understanding where appropriate with external stakeholders including but not limited to OSCR, the Institute of Fundraising, the Information Commissioner, the Advertising Standards Authority, CASE and the Gambling Commission and any other relevant organisation for the purpose of ensuring legal compliance and best practice in fundraising.

C. Powers & Sanctions of the Panel

The Panel shall issue and where appropriate develop non-statutory sanctions, which shall include (but not be limited to):

1. The issuing of cease and desist notices which will set out the Panel's decision in respect of a stage three complaint and where appropriate issue a set of undertakings to be signed by charity trustees;

2. Report the decision in writing to OSCR; and
3. Report annually to Scottish parliament.

D. Vexatious Complaints

The Panel reserve the right to reject or otherwise determine how to deal with complaints which it determines are abusive, frivolous or otherwise vexatious.

E. Complaints raised under any Whistleblowing Procedure

Any person (donor, fundraiser, employee or other) who feels that they are unable to raise their concerns about the fundraising practices of a particular charity should be entitled to raise their concerns via the Complaints Hub, without first contacting the charity and going through stages one and two of the complaints process. The Panel will review such concerns and shall respond and act as it sees fit.

F. Recruitment of Panel

1. Panel members are to be appointed following an open and transparent recruitment process, including an interview with existing Panel members.
2. The Panel members should reflect an understanding and representation of the third sector; are experts in the areas of charity law, consumer law and data protection matters; are senior fundraisers within the Scottish Charities sector; represent the higher education sector; and community fundraisers.
3. The Panel Chair and Vice-Chair will be elected in a secret ballot by the Panel members.
4. Panel Members are as follows:
 - Valerie Surgenor – Chair
 - Annmarie Devlin
 - Katie Bruce
 - Kirsty Connell-Skinner – Vice-Chair
 - Zoë Barbour
 - Gillian Mackay

In addition to the above, under an agreed Memorandum of Understanding, a member of the Fundraising Regulator's Board will be entitled to attend meetings of the Panel, as an observer. The Chair, or such person as the Panel shall nominate shall attend Board meetings of the Fundraising Regulator as an observer; and attend the Adjudication Committee and Standards Committees of the Fundraising Regulator as an observer and to represent and give a voice to the views of Fundraising in Scotland

G. Meetings of the Independent Panel

The Panel shall meet with such frequency as is set out in its constitution and as is necessary and appropriate to perform its purposes as set out in paragraph A above.
